CONSTITUTION OF CONVENTION

The object of this Convention shall be to promote the preaching of the Gospel and the organization and maintenance of Baptist churches and church schools in the State of Connecticut; and to act as the agent of the Baptist churches and people of Connecticut in advancing the kingdom of God throughout the world, and particularly in promoting the missionary, educational, and philanthropic interests of the Northern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. This Convention shall consist of delegates from the Baptist Churches of Connecticut of the same faith and order as the present associated Baptist Churches, each such church which has contributed to the funds of the Convention during the year last preceding the annual meeting of the Convention being entitled to representation by its pastor and one delegate for each hundred and each fraction of a hundred resident members and for each church school connected with it; provided, however, that no church shall be permitted to send more than five delegates besides its pastor.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Board of Managers of The Connecticut Baptist Convention,

Greeting:

The Board of Managers, Rev. Burr N. Timbie, president; Elbert E. Gates, secretary, submits its one hundred tenth annual report for the year 1932-1933. Following the custom of last year, and in the interest of economy, the report is brief and covers only matters which should become a part of the permanent records. The Board and committees have functioned through the year and all stated meetings have been held. A special meeting of the Board was necessary for the balancing of the budget.

Your Board rejoices that it does not have to report any death in its membership. It regrets that three vacancies have occurred during the year: Mrs. Ivan H. Benedict, Mrs. Algon H. Wilcox, who resigned, and Rev. Chester J. Armstrong, who moved out of the state.

Finances

The Convention has felt the stress of the financial depression through which the country and the world has been passing. In the previous year the Board was compelled to reduce salaries and appropriations in an attempt to balance the budget. At the close of the fiscal year, April 30, 1933, it was found that the Convention was in debt to The Hartford National Bank and Trust Company to the amount of $15,000., $5,000. on the principal fund and $10,000. on the operating budget. $5,000. of this amount was borrowed to settle the Almira Cone Fund, which had to be forfeited under the terms of the will. This amount is covered by securities and will be taken care of when the securities can be sold to advantage. The $10,000. were borrowings through the period of two or three years in order to carry on the work. It is of interest to know that the treasurer's report carries the information that the indebtedness was not increased beyond $200. for the year covered by this report. After a careful survey of probable income, it was evident that another reduction must be made and the finance committee was authorized to make a second attempt to balance the budget. Your Board faced this problem sympathetically, carefully, and in the spirit of Jesus, and with great regret was compelled to notify the secretaries, churches and missions, and affiliated societies, that another cut was necessary. The Board is deeply appreciative of the fine spirit with which all concerned received the reduction in appropriations and salaries. It is also of interest to note that the income from permanent funds was but slightly below that of previous years. This is due to the careful placing of investments by the treasurer advised by the finance committee. The falling off in receipts is due to the falling off of missionary contributions from the churches.

During the year the Convention received a bequest from the estate of Mrs. Eliza J. Gilbert, of Haddam. This bequest consisted of $500., which the Convention accepted, and an offer of her homestead as a home for ministers and missionaries. As the Convention is not in a position to finance such a project, it is quite probable that the Board will not be able to accept this generous offer. We hope that persons like-minded wishing to make a bequest to The Connecticut Baptist Convention would make the conditions covering it elastic enough that the Convention might accept such gifts and use them for the work of the Kingdom.

The Ludwig house given to the Convention by Mrs. Bessie Hancox-Ludwig, located in Stonington, has been rented to a doctor and part of the income will be used for the upkeep of the property. It is probable that it will be wise, when financial conditions are improved, to sell this property and add the proceeds to the permanent funds of the Convention. This will be in keeping with the desire of the donor.

The Board authorized the sale of one-eighth of an acre of the property of the First Saybrook Church to the State of Connecticut, the object being to enable the Highway Department to straighten the highway. The sale of this strip of land improved the church property. The proceeds of the sale were added to the First Saybrook Fund.

Last year the Board reported that the North Lyme Church gave to the Convention certain funds which it had held for many years, part of these to become the property of the Convention, and the other part to be as a trustee, the income to go to other organizations. On examination of the wills which set up these funds, it was discovered that the Convention was not legally entitled to these funds and, therefore, your Board authorized them to be returned to the church. The Convention is grateful to the church for its kindly thought and action and regrets that it could not accept the gift.

Annuities and Legacies

The Board wishes to direct the attention of the people who are interested in annuities and the bestowal of legacies to the Convention. The high rate of interest is noted on the inside page of the front cover of the Annual. It also appeals to the generosity of Baptists, and others, who are interested in the extension of the Kingdom of God in the state, when placing legacies, to consider The Connecticut Baptist Convention, thereby extending their influence out into the years.

Several years ago John D. Ross, a member of Memorial Church, Hartford, gave to the Convention a small library of old books and pamphlets, some of which are of historic value. During the year the Board requested Rev. H. E. Hodge, and his wife, to list these books, which was willing done. The findings will indicate the amount of care and time devoted to this work. The Convention owes its thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Hodge. Listed below is their findings:

Aided Churches

The work of the aided churches is under the direction of a committee charged with that work. The amount of money expended last year for aid on pastors' salaries, mortgage payments and interest, and insurance, amounted to $11,402.65. During the year there have been two changes in this department which reduce the amount to be expended. One is the death of Rev. Frank S. Robbins, for many years associational missionary in the Stonington Union Association. Mr. Robbins faithfully carried on the work which was centered largely in the Laurel Glen Church, which moved its congregation to Clarks Falls and changed the name of the church to the Clarks Falls Baptist Church, and the Second North Stonington Church, locally known as Miner Meeting-house. Mr. Robbins endeared himself by his interest and devotion to all whom he served as pastor. He was supported by appropriations from the missionary committee of Stonington Union Association and the Convention. A successor has not been appointed due to the lack of funds. The churches are being served by Rev. E. E. Knapp, who resides in the vicinity. The East Killingly Church was aided until the pastor, Rev. C. J. Armstrong, removed to Massachusetts. The church did not renew its request for aid but has secured the services of a pastor of a nearby church across the state line. The First African Church, Rockville, and the Calvary Church, Willimantic, are aided by the church. In order to help provide a living salary for the minister these churches are being served by Rev. R. L. Walker, under an arrangement agreeable to both churches.

The general secretary has had the privilege of being present and participating in programs in four of the churches of the Convention which have for several years discontinued their services. These included East Cornwall, where in August, each year, a memorial service is held in memory of Dr. Wm. G. Fennell, a native of that community and who annually gave one Sunday to his old home church—the Hartford Association sponsors the observance of this day. The Howard Valley Church, closed for a number of years, was re-opened two Sundays during the summer. On both occasions large congregations were present, people coming from some distance. It was decided to hold occasional services in the coming summer. The North Colebrook Church holds an annual "Home Coming Sunday", under the direction of Rev. A. S. Woodworth, pastor of the Winsted Church. This is an annual event of interest to all interested in the old church. The Brooklyn Church was re-opened on several occasions during the summer months and services held. The church is being used by a congregation of Finnish Christians.

The Board has received during the year several urgent appeals from churches in need, but under present conditions could not grant the applications. Statistics concerning aided churches will be found in the report in the Annual.

New American Work

The work of this department is financed by The American Baptist Home Mission Society, the local Unions or Churches, and the Convention. The record of this work will be found in the table accompanying the Annual.

Miss Cynthia Moore, for a number of years has been the efficient woman worker among the "New Americans" in Bridgeport, has been forced by ill health to give up her work with the hope that when her health is restored, she may come back to this work to which she has given such interest and devoted service. The South

Norwalk Hungarian Mission has been under the leadership of Professor E. L. Kautz, formerly of the International Seminary, East Orange, New Jersey. He has accepted the pastorate of a Hungarian Church in Pennsylvania and therefore resigned. The matter of his successor is now being considered.

Suffield School

Suffield School is celebrating its one hundredth anniversary this year. An attractive program has been set up, including speakers of national reputation. The Connecticut Baptist Convention Endowment Fund of the School has now reached the amount of $33,999.46. The continuation of the building of this fund is dependent upon the action of the Convention, which each year votes that the sum of $5,000. be added to the missionary quota of the Convention, the amount to be paid to the school to be determined upon a percentage fixed by the relation of the $3,000. to the state quota. The Board so recommends this year.

Connecticut Baptist Education Society

The Connecticut Baptist Education Society, Rev. Ellis Gilbert, president, and Rev. Major L. Johnson, secretary, has as its major interest the helping of young men and women to receive an education fitting them for Christian service. The amount paid by the Convention to the Education Society during the last year was $2,000.00. This is a reduction from the amount of the previous year.

Affiliated Organizations

The Convention is financially affiliated with the Woman's State Mission Society, Miss Mary L. Howard, president, the New England Baptist Conference and the Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education. The appropriations to these organizations were reduced during the year. The reports of these affiliated societies will be found in the Annual.

Publications

"The Connecticut Baptist" is still serving the interests of the Convention and the larger program of the denomination. The number of issues were necessarily reduced this year to save expense. The Board urges Baptist people to subscribe to this helpful agency in our work. The Board also advises that emphasis be placed upon "Missions". Its value as a source of information concerning the work in all parts of the world, its quality as a magazine and the necessity of its perusal, if one would keep informed on the great program of the denomination, cannot be overestimated. Dr. Wm. B. Lippard, the editor, has proven himself to be a worthy successor to Dr. Howard B. Grose, now editor-emeritus. "The Watchman-Examiner" and "The Baptist World" cover the denominational life and program. We recommend these periodicals to our constituency.

The constituency should be mindful of the fact that The American Baptist Publication Society cooperates with our Convention in the support of the department of Christian Education. During the year it is paying the full remuneration for the service of the children's worker. Each year it supplies special workers for the summer assembly, institutes and conferences, without expense beyond that of travel and entertainment while in the state. It is our own society and should be given preference in the matter of purchase of books, hymnals, Sunday school and young people's periodicals and literature. These are second to none now published and are greatly superior to many now used in some of our churches. It is worthy of note that all profits are used in Christian service within the territory of The Northern Baptist Convention. If publications from other societies or denominations are desired, they should be ordered through the Publication Society, as the society receives a commission on all such orders.

"We Cannot Go Farther Until We Go Deeper"

Your Board is in sympathetic and active cooperation with the program of The Northern Baptist Convention and recommends that the Convention should urge the churches to loyally support the "Live It Through" program. This program naturally and logically follows the "Pray It Through" campaign of last year. Both call for unity in effort, devotion in spirit and sacrifice in service. Special emphasis, this year, is placed on the local church, with the purpose of strengthening the stakes, that the cords may be lengthened. The program includes prayer, the reading through of the New Testament, church attendance, enlistment for Christ and Christian service, and general inspiring of the members to good works and interest in the welfare of others. Special emphasis is given to evangelism at Christmastide, Easter and on to Pentecost. If faithfully practiced the result will be a deepening of the spiritual life and an increasing power of the church, which means the dawning of a new day in our Christian work. We believe, with Dr. E. Stanley Jones, that we must go deeper before we can go farther.

We are also in accord with another spiritual force in the life of the church, that of systematic and sacrificial giving. Paul coupled "the collections" with a sublime picture of the spiritual life, immortality and victory. He calls to us to give as we have been prospered, which is in agreement with Malachi's word "bring all the tithe into the storehouse". The windows of heaven will open and blessings more than we can contain will fall. Ours to plant and water, God's to give the increase. Our vision is not limited to the needs of Connecticut and our interest conforms to the worldwide scope of Christ's mission and love. It is of interest to note that about 20% of the amount equal to the total collections for distributable money within the state comes to the Convention. We are not pleading for preferred treatment but we do plead for equal consideration by a generous and worthy response,—in contributions, as the larger the receipts from the churches, the larger the income to the Convention. "We are God's fellow-workers".

Respectfully submitted,

ELBERT E. GATES,
General Secretary.

Dear Sir:—

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF MISSIONARY COOPERATION

Year Ending April 30, 1933

To The Connecticut Baptist Convention:

The promotional activities of the Convention, for the year covered by this report, were carried out by your committee with a good degree of success.

Without going into detail about the office and field activities of the secretary of your committee, let me call attention to four major promotional features.

On January 3rd., Dr. O. C. Johnson, the president of The Northern Baptist Convention, and Dr. Wm. H. Bowler, executive secretary of The National Board of Missionary Cooperation, visited Connecticut. In the Central Church, Hartford, they met at a luncheon the representatives of 50 of our churches. In the evening of the same day at Central, both men addressed a large gathering of State Baptists. Dr. Johnson's bubbling humor, sane optimism, common sense and deep spiritual emphasis, coupled with Dr. Bowler's mastery of and clearly expressed detail of activities in their world-wide sweep, did much to stimulate interest in the denominational program, as well as generate faith and courage to "carry on".

For the seventh successive time we carried through our program of denomination-wide reading of missionary information during January. Connecticut was one of the 19 States using more copies of "Streets" than any booklet in previous years. We distributed to the churches 8,172 copies of "Streets". This fact indicates a growing interest on the part of the churches in this kind of a publication, as a source of up to the minute missionary information.

The idea of holding mid-year meetings had its origin in Connecticut. The wisdom of this method to promote interest in denominational missions has been amply justified by the scope and nature of the program presented, together with an ever increasing attendance of the representatives of the churches at these annual gatherings. This is the one time during the year when we try to concentrate on just one phase of denominational life and activity.

These meetings for the past year were held at South Willington; Norwich, First; Hartford, Central; Groton Heights; New Haven, Calvary, and Bridgeport, Second. The team consisted of Dr. Ota G. Walters, of Mexico; Rev. O. H. Sisson, New York, and Secretaries Gates and Sloat. Forty-two local leaders took part on the program in these centers, stressing different features of our missionary plans, together with the "Pray It Through" program.

A growing phase of our promotional work is the use of deputation speakers in the churches. Through the Hartford office arrangements were made, whereby, 130 contacts were made with the churches by missionaries, national secretaries and field workers. This is a service rendered by the denomination at no cost to the churches. Such a service could be greatly augmented if more of our churches could see their way clear to cooperate in this type of ministry. One cannot conceive a worth while program in any local church into which such a helpful ministry could not and would not fit, to the greatest advantage of both the local church and the denomination.

In this department the collections or receipts from the churches are our greatest concern and this for the reason, that they are the truest index or measure of the type of Christian manhood and womanhood in our churches. This holds for current expenses as well as missions. Unfavorable economic conditions continued during the past year but notwithstanding this fact our churches gave to the unified budget $120,538 plus. The auditor's report, here for examination by anyone, and which will appear in the Annual shows all gifts duly credited to the churches, together with their proper distribution.

Hartford, Conn., July 14, 1933.

The balance per books as of April 30, 1933, was verified by confirmation from the Hartford National Bank and Trust Company, after making adjustment for one outstanding check, which the bank put through the following month, and for the accumulated charges for check tax, which are not reflected in the net disbursements on Statement 3, but which we understand will be charged on the books in the present current year.

We examined all vouchers supporting expenditures and noted that a few expenditures were not covered by vouchers. Cancelled checks in payment of such expenditures, however, were examined.

Respectfully submitted,

WEBSTER, BLANCHARD & TAYLOR,
Certified Public Accountants.

"And what shall I more say?" May this question, out of the heart of the great Faith Chapter of Hebrews, be the scriptural warrant for saying some things apropos just now. Let us consider them without any idea of the depression in the picture. These figures may not give all the facts of our church life, nevertheless, they tell a rather disturbing story. The approximatingly increasing expenditures for current expenses and constantly diminishing receipts for missions. A study of what we give for others, in relation to what we spend on ourselves, in the light of opportunities and achievements, should give us pause. This situation hits at the very heart of our church life. What is it that is wrong in the life of a church when it refuses to fix an adequate quota for missions and then go out to get it? Have we the dollar sign on our church programs rather than the sign of the Cross? Has not the time come for a new deal in this matter of the every member canvass for getting both our current expense and missionary budgets? Are we going to continue to adopt plans in our local churches for raising money or shall we adopt the quite different plan of putting on a program that will tackle the problem of human relationships, the very source of all our trouble in the local church? As Webber suggests, let us regard our budgets as men-measures, not money-measures, and then let us humanize those budgets and spiritualize our every member canvasses and see where we come out. Is it not true that a man never "Prayed It Through" that didn't also "Pay It Through"; that no man will "Read It Through" who fails to "Pay It Through"; and as for "Living It Through" that is simply out of the question until we are willing to "Pay It Through". Let not the pseudo psychology that we shouldn't mix money and spirituality blind us to our duty as Christian Stewards. Standing at Kadesh Barnea, for this is where Connecticut Baptists stand today,—Ponder this question. Shall we continue turning back or shall we go in and possess the land?

There is a growing interest on the part of our men in what the denomination is trying to accomplish through the agency of the local church. Men are coming to see the program of the local church in its larger and world-wide impact. Three years ago a few men were called together for parts of two days, at Montowese House, Branford, with a view to mobilizing the man power of our churches in a great advance for the Kingdom enterprise. The program aimed to provide opportunities for recreation, information, mastication, meditation and inspiration. Last month we held the third annual outing and conference for men and for the second time at Norwich Inn. We had 102 men present from 24 churches—an increase in attendance of more than 300 per cent in three years. We have not yet solved the problem of so locating this "get-to-gether" as to put these interesting programs within reach of the greatest number of men at a minimum of cost and travel. The State Council is hoping to plan an improvement in this particular another year.

The Connecticut Baptist is the recognized monthly paper of the Convention. The action of the finance committee in balancing the budget made it impossible to issue the state paper every month. By the same action, in order to keep within the budget when publishing the paper, the number of pages in recent issues were reduced from 16 to 8. The Convention number has 12 pages. The paper, as unpretentious as its claims may be, is the one link uniting more Baptist families in the state than any other periodical in the denomination. In the interest of promotion and as a channel of church news shall we continue to print this monthly? The problem of increasing our subscription list on a 25 cent subscription basis remains a problem. The time has come when we feel the Convention should express itself in favor of continuing the paper. Surely there is interest enough in our local work and the larger work of the denomination to warrant its continuance.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The main purpose of this department is to aid the churches in their ministry of teaching. We are constantly trying to stimulate and inspire our church leaders to re-think the aims and purposes of their task with a view to improving their methods and securing greater spiritual results in Christian living. This report sets forth some of our activities but is obviously a very limited appraisal of the results of our program.

The Children's Division

Our children's work receives special attention in the leadership of Mrs. P. E. Dixon, our state director of this division. The total number of churches reporting this year is 71. From these reports some very encouraging trends may be noted.

The number of schools using Graded Lessons (either the Keystone or other series) has increased from 64% to 79%. Many more of the workers with children are becoming dissatisfied with the old type of lesson, a very healthy sign. The number of reporting churches now having an annual promotion day is 74%. The annual pastor's class in training for church membership is becoming the rule rather than the exception and is evidenced by the increase in baptisms of boys and girls under 13 years of age from 101 to 138. If all the churches had responded, the number of baptisms would undoubtedly be much larger. The circle of key-women now numbers 81. Six of this number represent new churches.

Because of the reduction in the budget for children's work the director has not visited the churches as she had intended. She has addressed two associational meetings and through the year made personal contacts with nine churches. Several of these new contacts were the direct result of the Religious Education Caravan in the spring.

An enterprise that is going to be of great value to our local churches is the organization by the Connecticut Council of Christian Education of a State Committee on Children's Work, composed of children's workers of all denominations. Its work is principally research in the field of helpful materials, program building, etc., to assist the local workers, and will issue its findings in the form of occasional bulletins from the State Office.

That the Department of Children's Work is really registering with our churches there is no doubt. This is evidenced by the splendid cooperation received from leaders in building this year's Convention program for workers with children.

The Christian Education Caravan

Previous to a series of five one-day conferences with pastors and teachers a survey was made in 77 churches. Facts were listed concerning the various types of communities where the churches are located: the organization, enrollment and attendance in the Sunday church schools; equipment, including building and teaching materials; week-day and vacation church schools; general and specific questions of concern to local workers. In the five centers visited we displayed a complete exhibit of our denominational plans and materials for teaching. The conference team was composed of: Rev. John W. Elliott, Rev. A. J. R. Schumaker, Mrs. Wm. E. Chalmers and Miss Pearl Rosser, four of our national leaders from The American Baptist Publication Society, together with the state secretary of Christian Education and the state director of Children's Work. Round table discussions were held based on questions raised by the five hundred workers who attended.

The Church School

The types of communities in which our churches are located may be classified, as follows: industrial 70%, city 50%, farming 28%, village and country 26%, suburban 21%, school centers 12%.

Nearly all of our schools are fairly well graded for class instruction. This is not yet true of their worship but gradual improvement in this respect is in evidence. During the last decade the enrollment and attendance has been practically unchanged. This is not good but it is better than the general record throughout the country. Our enrollment has been approximately 16,500 and the attendance 9,500. We have about 1,650 teachers and officers. Of these, 160 received one or more credits for leadership training. Most of these were taken at the summer conferences. A few of them took courses in community training schools and still fewer in local church training classes. The writer taught six of these 10 hour training classes.

Two major emphases have been promoted through the past year and they continue through this year. The first one is the slogan of all the evangelical churches of North America through the International Council of Christian Education. It is called "Increase" and seeks to raise the efficiency and spirituality of our workers as well as to increase the number of people reached. The other emphasis is on evangelism, which is a good parallel of the "Increase" program. This accent on evangelism is very pronounced in the gradual shifting of teaching method from that of transmitting information as the primary aim, to guidance in the experience of religion and Christian living.

Our records show that 80% of our churches use Baptist publications, but only 55% use exclusively Baptist literature. The number using lessons secured from independent publishers is 20% and 20% use some high grade lessons published by other denominations. Our publications are inferior to none, but even if a Baptist church prefers other publications, as a matter of loyalty to the cause of missions, orders should be made through the Publication Society, as all their profits are turned to missionary work. The prices are the same as the independent publishers whose profits go into the pockets of stock holders.

The week-day schools received support this year from eight churches and the vacation schools 34 churches and missions. Like the Sunday schools, the number participating has remained almost the same through the last five or six years.

The Summer Assemblies

Representation in the summer training conferences is generally regarded as essential in all churches with a growing leadership. Our churches regularly patronize the Baptist Assembly, the State Summer School, Ocean Park, Northfield, and Winnepeaukee. The largest number attends our Assembly at Storrs. The number this year was 103, with classes in missions registering 105, methods 92, worship 63 and Bible 22. There were 30 churches represented. There were 18 graduates. The leadership training units taken numbered 124.

The most valuable results of this project lie in the spiritual inspiration experienced and in the solution of personal, religious and vocational problems of the young people. This is effected by the intimate relations established between the young people and our exceptionally strong staff of leaders. For all these young people life is placed on a higher level through this experience. A by-product of inestimable value is the new blood brought back into the leadership of the churches to which these people belong.

The Scope of Our Program

The scope of our work may be indicated by a few of the questions we meet on the field. These are samples of the many actual questions which we have faced during the year in conferences, correspondence, personal interviews and the circulation of literature. We recommend these as good questions for study and discussion by local church groups.

LEADERSHIP:

1. How discover, enlist and train leaders?
2. What qualifications for leadership are essential and how get them recognized?
3. How can we hold successful teachers' meetings?
4. What is the pastor's place in the educational program?

ORGANIZATION:

1. How introduce the unified service? The expanded session?
2. How bring about an experience of God through worship?
3. When is the best time for church school to meet?
4. How make the fall rally most helpful?
5. How get the school properly graded?
6. What problems are peculiar to small churches? How meet them?
7. How build a program for the one-room school?
8. How build a program for the Young People's Society?
9. How build a program for the adolescents?
10. How organize, equip and administer an adequate program for children?

ADULTS:

1. How secure cooperation of homes?
2. How interest adults?
3. How enlist the men?
4. How make a place for young adults in church life?
5. How create Christian understanding between youth and adults?
6. What elective study courses do you recommend?

METHODS AND MATERIALS:

1. Should material rewards and contests be used as incentives?
2. How increase attendance?
3. Should church and denominational loyalty be stressed?
4. What is place of the Bible in the curriculum?
5. What are the most acceptable methods of missionary education?
6. How finance the church school? Educate in giving?
7. How use the project method?
8. How use handwork?
9. What place has social education in the curriculum?
10. How build and conduct recreational programs?
11. How make use of dramatics, pageantry, story telling? How secure materials?
11. How make use of dramatics, pageantry, story telling? How secure materials?
12. How secure decisions for Christ?
13. How conduct the pastor's class?

Many of these questions are never conclusively answered but the discussion of them with individuals and groups, and the treatment of them in our printed materials is the procedure by which we help those who are seeking to improve the quality of their work. Although our goals are never fully attained we feel that in the things that count most we are making real gains. In spite of our many handicaps we look to the future with confidence and enthusiasm.

Respectfully submitted,

OSCAR P. CAMPBELL,
Christian Education Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM 1933

The Committee on Evangelism has been keenly conscious, throughout the year, of its inability to do all that they knew was needed or what they desired to do. The necessity for economy did not permit the expenditure of any money for promotion or the holding of conferences. The symposium on evangelism, held as a part of the program yesterday afternoon is the nearest approach to a conference that we have been able to sponsor.

However, the committee offered its services to all pastors and churches, either for special revival and evangelistic meetings, personal workers campaigns, religious education conferences or any other type of service they might be able to render. The generosity of the committee in giving time and energy has been limited only by the failure on the part of the pastors and churches to accept this help. The committee gladly renews this offer as outlined in the pamphlet, distributed, last season, in co-operation with the Committee on Christian Education.

Several joint meetings have been held with the Committee on Christian Education believing that the ultimate aim of both groups was fundamentally the same. We desire to present a unified program in order to avoid over emphasis in either direction or at the expense of each other.

The record for the year shows that we are maintaining about the same percentage of growth as during the past ten years. 835 baptisms have been reported with other churches yet to respond. The average for the past ten years is 902. It may be that the total number, this year, may be a little short of this average but this need not cause anxiety. It may be an evidence only that the churches are not seeking numbers but rather raising the standard of qualification for membership.

Some form of evangelistic activity was promoted in nearly every church. Several churches had the help of such leaders as Dr. Earl W. Kernahan and with gratifying results. The fact that the churches, in spite of increased effort, have not received increased numbers rather belies the old idea that people flock to the church and get interested in religion during hard times. We trust, however, that though our treasuries may be empty and our numbers not increasing, we are experiencing a deepening of the spiritual life.

The committee desires to urge full participation by all our churches in the challenging program of the Northern Baptist Convention as set forth in the LIVE IT THROUGH movement.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. ALLEN,
Chairman.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSION SOCIETY OF CONNECTICUT

October 13, 1933.

The work of the W. B. M. S. of Connecticut is going on as usual. This seems an insignificant statement, but any person or organization who is working quietly, faithfully and efficiently in these days, is not insignificant. Interest has been well sustained and many of the local societies are making an advance: for example, those of the Fairfield Association, where there has been an emphasis on Better Programs. $2000.00 has been given from the Silver Mite Boxes, in an effort begun last year by the women, to undergird the finances of the denomination. The Mite Boxes are being filled again this year.

In Missionary Education there has been an increase in every point, and such items as these are of interest, "Danbury has had a most excellent School of Missions; New Milford has made a startling record in the Reading Contest; the Willington Church has created interest by a widespread reading of Missions."

The Book Table, presided over by our Literature Secretary, is still a popular spot at Conventions and other meetings, and there is a continued increase in the use of the Reading Contest Books. Men find them good reading, too.

Both divisions of the White Cross are 100% in quotas filled, with many extra gifts, despite the great amount of Red Cross and relief work also accomplished. Some of the places to which our gifts will go this year are—Overseas: The Ellen Mitchell Memorial Hospital, Moulmein, India; Tura, Assam; and the Belgian Congo. Overland: Miss Newkirk, Meriden; Mather School, S. C.; Florida Normal School; and Bacone.

Through our College Counselors we are trying to link the students, away at college, more closely with their home churches. There are now five Associational and 22 local counselors.

Americanization and Civics Secretaries are earnestly endeavoring to make Connecticut a better state to live in. At present, little can be done about Prohibition, until new plans and literature are available.

Thirty-five churches have definitely organized prayer groups with 390 members, besides the many women all over the state, who are praying daily for the coming of the kingdom.

Work among our young people is always of great interest to us. There are 700 W. W. G. girls and about 400 children in the Crusade Companies. All with a program similar to the older societies. There are many more young people in our churches whose interest could be aroused if there were leaders. What are we doing to make them missionary-minded?

We have received renewed inspiration and consecration from the messages given at the May meeting and the September House party. In May we considered undergirding the ship, and found that we might be "Helps". In September that idea was further carried out by the beautiful thoughts of being in the Service of the King. Therefore we accept the challenge of greater effort for the work of the kingdom, and, entering upon the winter's activities, pledge ourselves joyfully to the service of the King.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY E. BIDWELL,

Corresponding Secretary.

MISSIONARY EDUCATION IN CONNECTICUT

1932 - 1933

On the threshold of a new year we pause to look back at the gain or loss of the previous one. We are glad that we can again report a moderate gain on nearly every point. We feel that the knowledge of what Christian missions are doing in making this a better world, gained by an ever increasing number of Baptists through the reading and study of missionary books, must result in a conviction that the greatest function of a Christian life is witnessing, both personally and through our missionaries by means of sacrificial gifts and prayer.

We are sure that the missionary instruction being given in the Sunday Schools, World Wide Guild chapters, Children's World Crusade bands, Royal Ambassador troops and Young People's societies, must result in the Christians of tomorrow counting Christ in every sphere of life as never before. Such an attitude is further encouraged by attendance at Summer Conferences.

Our missionary lending libraries are being used in many churches either to supplement books they already own or as their sole means of securing missionary literature. Fifty-four sets of five books each were used last year. Several such churches, at various times, have won the association loving cups for excellence in amount of reading done.

Certificate churches increased last year to 46, evidence that more churches are putting on a comprehensive program of missionary education.

This coming winter we are hoping that much good will result from the study of books dealing with the Christian attitude in the economic world. The Church is concerned to know if the gospel is still the power of God in America in the 20th century that it was in the Roman empire in the first century. Reading and study of current missionary books, program meetings, sermons and addresses on the theme "Christ and the Modern World" are the means we urge toward making our Lord master in every realm of life.

IVAH M. GARDNER,

Secretary of Missionary Education.

REPORT OF CONNECTICUT WORLD WIDE GUILD

The annual reports received in the Spring show the following: 36 churches having Guild chapters with 53 chapters; 716 members; 301 program meetings; 33 Mission Study classes; amount raised for Guild Loyalty Fund—over and above offerings in church envelopes and credited to the state missionary apportionment for general work of the denomination—$1,335.45; 18 chapters qualified in the Reading contest, each member having read the five required books, and thus qualifying for the picture award; 1740 books were read with 13,710 points; 40 chapters reported having done White Cross work, over $100 spent for this project; 103 members have "Missions" in the home. Outside of the regular Guild work, many chapters have special projects and the majority are enrolled or teaching in the church schools and are active in the Young People's Societies. Guild Vesper Sunday was observed in 25 churches. 21 chapters sent delegates to Summer Conferences.

A rally for the whole state was held in the Spring, at the First Baptist Church, New Haven, with over 100 in attendance, and the two state-wide Fall Rallies have just taken place—one in Meriden First Baptist, and one at Jewett City. About 250 girls attended. Our missionary guests were Rev. and Mrs. Theodore Bubeck, of Belgian Congo, and Mrs. Pollard, of Bristol. Miss Eleanore MacKenzie, of the Woman's Board, gave "Methods" and program building. Grateful thanks are due her for her help through the year and for conducting the class at Storrs assembly on Guild Methods.

We always ask for help of the older girls and the women in carrying on this worth-while work.

EDITH F. WING,

State Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL STANDING

The work of the Committee consists in acting in an advisory capacity in ordination councils, in suggesting courses of study to candidates whose educational preparation is incomplete, and in keeping a record of the ministers of the State.

During the year members of the Committee have attended three councils of ordination, as follows:

Alfred W. Jones, at the First Church, Meriden;
Frank H. Woyke, at the Liberty Street Church, Meriden;
Howard Zabriskie, at the Preston City Church.

Also during the year the changes in the ministry have been as follows:

Four ministers have removed from the State;
One minister has made a change of pastorate within the State;
Seven ministers have resigned without charge;
Eight new ministers have been welcomed in the State;
Three candidates have been ordained to the ministry;
Six ministers have passed on to their heavenly reward.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY E. HODGE,

Chairman.

REPORT OF THE OBITUARY COMMITTEE

Rev. Henry B. Rankin

Rev. Henry B. Rankin was born in Reading, Pa., January 24, 1865. At an early age he united with the Berean Baptist Church of his home city. Educated in the Reading Schools, Bucknell University, Shurtleff College and Gordon College, he served first as Y. M. C. A. secretary in Allentown, Pa., and Greenfield, Mass. He prepared specially for work as a missionary in China, but circumstances preventing his plans being carried out, he was ordained by the Turners Falls Baptist Church, Sept. 15, 1891. He had pastorates in Philadelphia, Sewickly, and Easton, Pa., Noank, Conn., Newport and Ludlow, Vermont. He was made pastor emeritus of the church at Ludlow, June 19, 1932. He was married to Mary Sears in Norwich, Conn., June 16, 1891. When it became evident that he could not hope to recover from the illness that had come upon him, he returned to the old home town Reading, Pa., and after a sickness of several months duration, he died there October 4, 1932. His widow and two sons survive him.

Rev. Charles A. Nichols

By the death of Rev. Charles A. Nichols, D. D., at Danbury, Conn., December 18, 1932, the Foreign Society lost one of its most distinguished veterans. His 53 years of service in Burma represents one of the longest terms of service in the Society's history. He was born in Greenfield, Conn., August 16, 1853, and was graduated from Madison University and Hamilton Theological Seminary. In 1879, following his marriage to Miss Jennie Root, cousin of Elihu Root, they sailed for Burma, designated to work among the Karens of Bassein. For over 40 years she served with him, his devoted and wise counsellor. Under his wise supervision and his constant advocacy of self-support, the Karens have developed into a strong, ambitious people, efficient in their church work and influential in business and professional circles. In 1916 the King-Emperor of British India awarded him the Kaisar-i-Hind gold medal in recognition of his conspicuous service. He was married in 1923 to Miss Carrie Selleck of Danbury, Conn. They returned to America and retired in May, 1931. The funeral service was conducted in Danbury.

Rev. William Holloway Main, D. D.

Rev. William H. Main, D. D., executive secretary of The American Baptist Publication Society, died suddenly January 4, 1933. Connecticut is especially interested in Dr. Main because of his position in the Society which is cooperating with Connecticut in the work of Christian Education and, as he was a former pastor, 1903-1907, of the Old South Church, which with the First Church formed the Central Church of Hartford. Dr. Main has been prominent in the life of the denomination since his ordination in Waterford, N. Y., in 1885. For two years he served as an evangelist. His other pastorates were: Immanuel Church, Buffalo, and Central Church, Syracuse, N. Y., Memorial Church, Philadelphia, where he had two pastorates, and the First Church, Chicago. He was co-adjutant with Dr. Brink before becoming executive secretary of the Publication Society. The funeral service was held in Philadelphia. Interment was made in Troy, N. Y. He is survived by his daughter. Dr. Main was a devoted pastor, a wise executive, a genial friend, and was popular wherever he was known.

Rev. Myron D. Fuller

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FEDERATION OF CHURCHES

The Committee is indebted to Dr. J. Quinter Miller, general secretary of the Connecticut Council, for the information contained in this report.

The completion of the merger of the Connecticut Council of Religious Education and the Connecticut Federation of Churches early this year under the incorporated name of The Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education perhaps marked the greatest forward step toward united Protestantism in our state. Not only has this merger been of vital interest in Connecticut but many inquiries have been received from many other states asking for our method of procedure to bring this merger about. We have even had requests from Canada.

Our work in the field is carried on by ten distinct departments.

Through our Social Service Committee, of which Prof. Fleming James of Berkeley Divinity School, New Haven, is chairman, we have cooperated with the State Department of Labor and the Connecticut Child Welfare Association in an endeavor to have the churches of our state use their influence in removing from Connecticut the sweat shops that had come into it from New York and other places; to better working conditions for women and girls in industry; to favor a higher wage scale, and to be represented at the legislature before all bills pertaining to child welfare and the betterment of social relations.

The Committee on Religious Education of Children, under the leadership of Prof. Edna M. Baxter of the Hartford Seminary Foundation, has held a number of conferences and has issued a series of bulletins for help in planning children's programs.

Rev. John M. Deyo of Danbury is chairman of the Committee on Religious Education of Youth. Conferences for young people have been held by the Fairfield County Council, Litchfield County, the New Haven City and County Council, Norwalk, Meriden and Middlesex.

The committee on Religious Education for Adults, Prof. Karl R. Stolz of the Hartford Seminary Foundation, chairman, has been keenly interested in the course of religious education at our State College at Storrs, and Dr. Stolz has been the instructor. The classes had an enrollment of thirty-two students for 1933. Credits are given by Connecticut State College.

The Comity Committee, under the chairmanship of Rev. David P. Gaines of Waterbury, has made a special study of three over-churched areas in the state looking toward a possible federation. Plans for church federation have been furnished to two other over-churched towns.

The International Relations Committee, Rev. Theodore A. Greene of New Britain, chairman, has given time and thought to the observance of Armistice Day; that there be some fitting emphasis for the promotion of world-mindedness in the local community, promotion of Musical Memorial services, cooperation in the Disarmament Campaign, Oct. 1 to 15. A post card shower was sent to the President by all the churches in the state condemning recourse to war for the solution of international controversies.

The Rural Life and Work Committee, with Rev. E. L. Richards of Madison as chairman, had an active part on the program with special reference to the religious emphasis at Farmers' Week at Storrs College in July. This committee is also making a study of rural conditions, church architecture, etc.

The Vacation and Week-day Schools, under the leadership of Rev. Claibourne Johnson of Bridgeport, have had state-wide conferences to help the various schools and to promote new schools. This committee has gathered statistics, made reports and have given advice regarding curriculum materials, placement of teachers, etc., in vacation schools throughout the state, enrolling some twenty thousand boys and girls.

The Leadership Training Committee, with Prof. A. J. W. Myers of the Hartford Seminary Foundation as chairman, planned the curriculum and selected the faculty for the Summer School at Storrs, the largest in our history. They have given consideration to the tentative proposals for the revision of the International Leadership curriculum and for the promotion of Leadership Schools in new centers. There are approximately thirty standard training schools and classes with an enrollment of some fifteen hundred students.

The Committee on Field Administration is made up of the state denominational directors for cooperation in planning their field contacts, and closer relationship in their activities.

In addition to the work carried on by the various committees our headquarters at 18 Asylum Street is serving locally and state-wide. Our library is open for reference and for the loan of books at all times. The office is open from 9:00 to 5:00 and on Saturdays from 9:00 to 12:00. During these hours we have many calls for information and help on various matters pertaining to the churches and religious education.

A report of the year's work will be given at our Annual Meeting and Convention which will be held this year on December 8 and 9 in Bridgeport at United Church.

Respectfully submitted,

MAJOR L. JOHNSON,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Resolved that we express to the members of the Central Baptist Church of Norwich and to its Pastor, Dr. David A. Pitt, our deep appreciation of the splendid hospitality extended to the Convention. We appreciate the efforts of the many workers who have labored so faithfully to make this convention the helpful occasion it has been.

Resolved that the Secretary of the Convention send a letter of appreciation to the Police Department of the City for the courtesy and service rendered to the Convention. Also to the Norwich Bulletin and Record for its gracious and generous treatment of the Convention.

Resolved that "we ask the American delegation to the Disarmament Conference to do everything in its power to secure the adoption of the following six-point program as a basis for the first disarmament treaty: Substantial reduction of existing armaments, no rearmament, abolition of aggressive weapons within a definite period, limit of expenditures, effective supervision of existing armaments and arms manufacture and trade, and a permanent disarmament commission to carry out the above provisions and prepare for further reductions."

Resolved that we endorse the National Recovery Act in so far as it brings social justice.

Resolved that it is the privilege and duty of the Baptists of Connecticut to express themselves in no uncertain manner by word, pen, and action concerning the great civic issues of our day—notably International Relations Leading to World Peace, Total Abstinence from Alcohol as a beverage, Purification of the movies, both the films shown in our own land and those exported from our country, Industrial relations, and cooperation in all proper and worthy welfare movements and legislation in order that "His Kingdom may come" the world around; that an intensive educational program on the above issues be urged upon our Churches, the objective of this program being the building of the character of our boys, girls and young people, and the establishment of a higher Christian social order.

Resolved that we heartily endorse the "Live It Through" program of the Northern Baptist Convention and that we urge each Church to deepen the spiritual life through the adoption of the details of the program. We further urge that the individual members of the Churches through renewed self-dedication live the Gospel, and that Connecticut Baptists as they endeavor to live the Gospel also share it with the rest of the world through more sacrificial giving.

Respectfully submitted,

J. HYBERT POLLARD,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE CONNECTICUT BAPTIST EDUCATION SOCIETY

Given at Norwich, October 14, 1933

The purpose of the Education Society is to aid worthy students from the Baptist Churches of Connecticut in securing their education for becoming full time servants of Christ in Christian work. The aid is granted under contract that the person receiving it remains in Baptist work. If he or she leaves the denomination or gives up the work it must be paid back to the Society.

Last year twenty students were granted aid to the amount of $125.00 and one student $100.00. The secretary has enjoyed the fellowship of the young people in meeting some of them and corresponding with all of them. Most of the students are doing high grade work and several of them have been highly honoured by the records they have made in the various Colleges or Seminaries they are attending. The board of the Society voted last year not to extend aid to students doing high school work and is seriously considering not accepting any more students until they have reached the Junior year in college. The latter has not been made a law as yet. May God's blessing be granted on the young people who have been called into His work and may we have your prayers for the success of the Society? The funds of the Society are not sufficient as yet to meet the demands of the number aided, so a large grant is made each year from the Connecticut Baptist Convention for this important work.

Respectfully submitted,

MAJOR L. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING OF THE MINISTERS' WIVES' ASSOCIATION

A reception of the Ministers' Wives' Association was held in the parlor of Central Baptist Church, Norwich, Thursday afternoon, October 12th. Mrs. David A. Pitt and Mrs. Gildersleeve were the hostesses, and Mrs. J. J. Allen of New London presided. After a period of singing, Mrs. Pitt, as chairman of the Program Committee, asked each woman to tell how she became a minister's wife. Some very amusing romances were revealed.

The following officers were elected to serve for the current year:

President—Mrs. Major Johnson, Hartford.
Secretary—Mrs. R. W. E. DeWolfe, Moosup.
Chairman Program Committee—Mrs. Avery Gates, Hartford.
Hostess—Mrs. John N. Lackey, Hartford.

Respectfully submitted,

CARRIE L. DE WOLFE,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE BAPTIST MINISTERS OF CONNECTICUT

October 12, 1933

PRESIDENT, Rev. L. F. Requa, Southington

The meeting was called to order by the president, Rev. Henry E. Hodge, Putnam. Following the singing of a hymn led by Rev. George R. Atha, Groton, Rev. D. W. Lovett, Willimantic, conducted a brief period of devotions, using as his theme the words of Stanley Jones, "We cannot go farther until we go deeper."

The president appointed Rev. John W. Brush, New Haven, Rev. George R. Atha, Groton, and Rev. J. C. Hendrickson, Stamford, as a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year.

The report of changes in the ministry was given by Rev. Elbert E. Gates, D.D., Hartford, showing three ordinations, four removals outside of the state, one change of location within the state, seven ministers resigned without charge, eight new pastors, and six deaths. Those ordained are: Rev. Alfred W. Jones, Meriden; Rev. Charles G. King, New Haven; and Rev. Howard Zabriskie, Preston City.

President Hodge then gave a hearty welcome to the new pastors which include: Rev. Walter S. Oddy, Montville; Rev. George C. Chappell, Warrenville; Rev. Earle Hand, Ansonia; Rev. B. J. Deloach, Hartford; Rev. Reuben Jeschke, New Britain; Rev. J. Hybert Pollard, Ph.D., Bristol; Rev. E. E. Knapp, North Stonington; and Rev. J. A. Swetnam, Quaker Hill.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented by Rev. John W. Brush, New Haven, as follows:

For President—Rev. L. F. Requa, Southington.

For Secretary—Rev. E. T. Settle, Ph. D., West Haven.

For Essayist—Rev. Sankey Lee Blanton, New Haven.

For Alternate—Rev. E. Scott Farley, Suffield.

The essay, "The Minister and His Devotional Life", presented by Rev. Major L. Johnson, Hartford, was deeply stimulating to all. After discussion and the singing of a hymn, Rev. O. P. Campbell, Hartford; Rev. J. J. Allen, New London; Rev. D. P. Gaines, Waterbury; Rev. J. N. Lackey, D.D., Hartford; and Rev. R. C. Johnson, Bridgeport, led in a very helpful symposium on evangelism, each covering a portion of the church year. Following this the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN T. SETTLE, JR.,
Secretary.
